For Your Information:

The Blissymbols in this book have been revised or developed since the publication of Blissymbol for Use, Hehner, 1980, with the help of the members of the International Panel on Standards for Blissymbolics, the BCI Symbol Committee, the BCI Board of Directors and Dr. Harry Silverman (prior to 1983). Dr. Peter Reich developed the Blissymbol font for the Macintosh computer which made the organization of information and the publication of this book possible. BCI would like to thank these individuals for their efforts to support the ongoing development of the system of Blissymbolics.
